To introduce the new designs, Baby Jogger® released a number of new products this summer, including the City Select® 2 stroller (MSRP starting at: $499.99), which is available now for purchase in Lunar Black, Peacoat Blue and Pure Mulberry, with additional colorway options being released in the coming months on www.babyjogger.com. The City Select® 2 is 20% smaller when folded than the market leader and is lighter than the original City Select®. On specific models, one can opt-in for chic product upgrades, including leatherette accents on the handle and included belly bar, as well as sustainably-sourced TENCEL™ performance fabrics featured on the canopy and seat pad, which enhances breathability and helps with thermal regulation.

"We're so excited to breathe new energy, expression, and confidence back into the brand through our refreshed product line," shared Laurel Hurd, Segment President, Learning & Development. "Baby Jogger® is a brand that has active parents in mind – whether it's on city sidewalks or hiking trails – we know parents have big plans and big dreams and our newest products are designed to help you and baby adventure together."
